PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 6, A. D., 1906.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEBRASKA:

Section 1. That at the general election for State and Legislative officers to be held on the Tuesday, succeeding the first Monday in November, 1906, the following provision be proposed and submitted to the electors of the state as an amendment to the constitution.

Section 2. There shall be a State Railway Commission, consisting of three members, who shall be first elected at the general election in 1906, whose term of office, except those chosen at the first election under this provision, shall be six years, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the Legislature.

Of the three commissioners first elected, the one receiving the highest number of votes, shall hold his office for six years, the next highest four years, and the lowest two years. The powers and duties of such commission shall include the regulation of rates, service and general control of common carriers as the legislature may provide by law. But in the absence of specific legislation, the commission shall exercise the powers and perform the duties enumerated in this provision.

Section 3. That at said election in the year 1906, on the ballot of each elector voting thereat, there shall be printed or written the words: "For Constitution Amendment, with reference to State Railway Commission." And "Against Constitution Amendment, With Reference to State Railway Commission." And if a majority of all votes cast at said election, shall be for such amendment, the same shall be deemed to be adopted.

I, A. Galusha, secretary of state of the state of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the Twenty-ninth session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday the 6th day of November, A. D. 1906.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the state of Nebraska.

Done at Lincoln this 24th day of July, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six, of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-second, and of this state the Fortieth.

A. GALUSHA,
Secretary of State.

Hot! Hot!! Hot!!!

Falls City has experienced considerable inconvenience, as a result of the ice famine, this week.

There are few towns the size of Falls City that have not less than two or three bands. Give us one.

Of course we needed rain! But old Richardson will always do her best toward filling the farmers' purses, rain or shine.

We imagine the ice cream soda business is not so very profitable in this city this year, owing to the high price and scarcity of ice.

Big Crops! Big Bank Accounts!

Whenever you sell your farm products, bring your surplus money to this bank. It will safely keep your funds until called for and allow you interest if you leave it for a stated time.

Uncle Cass Jones stands before the people upon a record made at a previous session of the body to which he again seeks admission through the voice of his friends in this county at the polls next November. He is justly proud of the record made and if any voter has a difference along that line and will ask Mr. Jones why he voted yea or nay, he will find that he was well posted on the subject before registering an opinion. As a public servant Mr. Jones has certainly been faithful to his constituents, and a voice and vote for him would act as a reward of merit.

Frank Shubert is not built like a greyhound, but when the polls close next November, the verdict will be that he run like one. He is a representative young man of the town that bears his name, where a host of friends and admirers have pushed him to the front for the nomination and will see to it that his majority in that part of the county is one that he will be proud of. He is a thorough business man and while he has had no experience in an official way, is apt and will place a vigilant watch over the doings of the representative body that he seeks to become a member of.

When the republicans of this county named Albert Stalder as a candidate for representative they made an excellent choice. For many years we have been acquainted with this gentleman and in our judgment he is eminently qualified for this position. He is a close observer and clear thinker, honest and honorable beyond question and will be found voting on the right side of all problems that come before that body. When you vote for Albert Stalder you will not meet with disappointment for when he occupies a chair in the house his voice is asked on the many knotty problems that are of vital interest to all, he will be there to answer and have a good reason for his vote, be it for or against the issue.

Isn't it passing strange that when Lancaster county does not see political plumbs filling her lap to overflowing, the loudest kind of a howl goes up. In the case of Mr. Pollard who was the man of their choice but a few short months ago and again received their endorsements but a few weeks past, is now fought harder by that aggregation than in any other county in the district. Mr. Pollard stood by his record and if that was distastful to the Lancaster delegation they had the power in their own hands to turn him down. They were solid for him as was nearly the entire district and it came with poor grace from that quarter to put up a howl at this time. The fact is that when Lancaster cannot do the dictating all along the line there is trouble in the camp and it is just possible that Mr. Pollard objects to some of their terms. We are told that there is honor among thieves and many eyes will be turned toward Lincoln as the vote is being counted next fall.
